

PEACE IS DECLARED

OFFICIAL BULLETIN.—PORTSMOUTH, N. H., August 29.—At the session of August 29, the conference arrived at complete accord on all the questions, and it has been decided to proceed to the elaboration of a treaty.

The Japanese conceded everything. They accepted the Russian ultimatum, no indemnity and a division of Sakhalien, without payment of redemption money. The Japanese also yielded interned warships and limitation of naval power.

TRYING TO SETTLE BOYCOTT

Chinese Taking Sharp Measures to End the Issue.

SHANGHAI, Tuesday August 29.—Chang Chien, who has been ordered by the Peking ministry to commence to concert measures to settle the boycott today met the Chinese Chamber of Commerce and the principal peace goods dealers.

He began by firing certain dealers 4,000 taels altogether for alleged breaches of the boycott. He then ordered all to sign an agreement to buy no more American goods from foreign merchants of any nationality.

Regarding goods contracted for before the boycott was started, he stated his intention of opening an office and granting passes and stamping such goods thus permitting their sale in the interior.

He also announced his intention of opening offices in thirty-six principal trade centers in China, where goods so stamped will be passed. This will require an initial sum of 200,000 taels which Shanghai dealers must pay, thus averting impending financial ruin.

This means the creation of permanent boycotting machinery, available against any branch of any foreign trade in China and the practical imposition of new taxation against all treaty tariffs.

THE BOYCOTT.

PEKING, August 29.—The American boycott almost overhadows the peace negotiations as a topic of interest in China. Accounts reaching Peking from trading centers indicate that the movement attained its greatest strength early in August, and since then has been decreasing. Nowhere except in Shanghai has American business received a serious blow. The boycott would have been equally successful at Tientsin, which is a distributing market.

GRAND JURY HAS INDICTED

Otto L. Hasse Will Have to Answer Charge in Court.

As a result of the investigation into the alleged stuffing of the county stationery, the Grand Jury this morning brought in an indictment against Otto L. Hasse and a bench warrant was issued by Judge John Ellsworth for his arrest.

The bail was fixed at $2,000 and it is expected that Hasse will be in custody before the afternoon is over. He was seen in town late last evening, and while he was not in attendance on the Grand Jury this morning it is thought that he will be found at his home or information can be had there of his whereabouts.

It was nearly noon today when an information was given out that there was something unusual happening in the deliberations of the Grand Jury. Judge Ellsworth was notified that a partial report was ready and instructions were given for the procuring of a bench warrant. As soon as the Judge had taken his seat the jurors filed in from the Grand Jury rooms and took their seats.

Foreman Gard handed the report made to Deputy County Clerk Lester McNulty, who in turn handed it to Judge Ellsworth. He read the report, filed in the name on the bench warrant and turned it over to McNulty, who in turn delivered it to Under Sheriff Hanlin.

The greatest secrecy of what was done was imposed upon all those who knew the contents of the document charging Hasse with the offense, but without any one deliberately telling who it was the unintentional mentioning of the circumstances among the jurors spread the news broadcast.

Hasse was formerly the manager of the Central News Store, and is charged with having stuffed the bills for stationery until they became so high that the Board of Supervisors cut down some six months' bills that were held up nearly $1,000. It is thought that it will be a very hard matter to secure a conviction in this case. Mr. Hasse absolutely denies the charge and declares that he delivered to the county officials every article for which he filed a bill.

PRESIDENT WHEELER WILL BE SPEAKER

PORTLAND, August 29.—The Lewis and Clark Educational Congress assembled today for a four days' session. Among the speakers was Dr. A. S. Draper, Commissioner of Education of New York. Benjamin De Wheeler, president of the University of California, will deliver an address tomorrow which will be the feature of the day's programme.

MRS. TAGGART MAKES POSITIVE DENIAL

WOOSTER, O., August 29.—Mrs. Taggart again took the stand in the opening of the Taggart divorce case today and in the most positive manner denied many of the charges heretofore made against her by various witnesses.

She declared that she had always been devoted to her husband until the latter had maltreated and abused her.

WHAT THE OFFICIALS HAVE TO SAY ABOUT PEACE TERMS

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., August 29.—A scene of great excitement followed the receipt of the news in the lobby of the Hotel Wentworth. The bulletin was telephoned from the conference room at the Navy Yard by Mr. Sato, and like an electric thrill spread through the hotel. There were screams of joy. Men threw their hats aloft. Women actually wept. Then there was a rush for the telegraph office and in an instant the news was speeding to the remotest corners of the earth.

SECRET UNDERSTANDING.
PORTSMOUTH, August 29.—The rumor is circulating that there is some sort of a secret understanding behind the treaty.

ALL FOR PEACE.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., August 29.—Peace between Russia and Japan was practically concluded at this morning's session of the peace conference. In the final struggle the Russians achieved the victory. For the sake of peace the Japanese, with a magnanimity worthy of their heroic achievements in this war, met the ultimatum of the Czar and abandoned their demands not only for reimbursement for the cost of the war but for the re-purchase of the northern half of Sakhalien, Russia at the same time agreeing to the division of the island.

The Japanese also withdrew article 10 and 11 of the peace conditions originally presented in the demand for the surrender of the interned warships and limitation of Russian naval power in the Far East. The delegates of the two missions will be called in at the afternoon session and the actual work of formulating the treaty of peace will begin.

The news that a peace had been agreed upon caused the most intense excitement at the hotel where the envoys are staying. Everywhere there was a delirium of jubilation. An armistice will be arranged this afternoon.

TO HIS ROOM.
The Associated Press correspondent accompanied Mr. Witte to his room. An envoy had been quite overcome by the reception he had received and the strain he had been under. He threw himself into an armchair and after a few minutes to "pull himself together" he began to speak slowly and deliberately, almost as if he were talking to himself.

"It seems incredible," he said, "I don't believe any other man in my place would have dared to hope for the possibility of peace on the conditions to which we have just agreed. From all sides, from President Roosevelt down to my own friends in Russia, I received urgent representations that something should be said to Japan." At this point Mr. Witte was still laboring under excitement and almost lost control of himself. He paused a moment. Then he went on:

THE WARSHIPS.
The Japanese wanted the interned warships, and I have not consented. The Japanese wanted to limit our naval power in the Far East, and I have not consented. The Japanese wanted war indemnity or reimbursement of the cost of the war, and I have not consented. The Japanese wanted Sakhalien, and I refused it, agreeing at the last moment to cede the southern half, and then only because I was commanded by my sovereign to yield. Not only do we not pay so much as a kopeck, but we obtain half of Sakhalien, now in their possession. At this morning's meeting I presented my written proposition, which was the Russian ultimatum. It was accepted by the Japanese. I was amazed. Until I was in the conference room I did not think what would happen. I could not anticipate such a great and happy issue."

OPENING OF SESSION.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., August 29.—The session of the peace conference this morning began shortly after 10 o'clock. The Russians arrived at the navy yard in their motor at 9:30 and the Japanese were there a few minutes after that.

When the peace envoys started for the conference room today there was a recognition on both sides that the decisive hour in the fate of peace negotiations, which was the Russian ultimatum, had been passed. Mr. Witte received new instructions during the night. He left him no leeway. Unless the new Japanese proposal met the Emperor's approval, as given to President Roosevelt, the Russian ultimatum (no indemnity, but the cession of half of Sakhalien, without money, beyond that for the maintenance of Russian prisoners and that involved in the cession of the Chinese railway) he considered that the position was insupportable. He was playing a diplomatic game. He would accept reference to St. Petersburg, considering that the Emperor had signified his position was insupportable. He was playing a diplomatic game. He would accept reference to St. Petersburg, considering that the Emperor had signified his position was insupportable. He was playing a diplomatic game.

WITTE TIED.
His superior having thus committed himself, Mr. Witte felt himself tied hand and foot. Unless the Japanese proposal met the Emperor's approval, as given to President Roosevelt, the Russian ultimatum (no indemnity, but the cession of half of Sakhalien, without money, beyond that for the maintenance of Russian prisoners and that involved in the cession of the Chinese railway) he considered that the position was insupportable. He was playing a diplomatic game. He would accept reference to St. Petersburg, considering that the Emperor had signified his position was insupportable. He was playing a diplomatic game.

But there are motives that might impel him in the other direction. None knows as well as he that the Emperor's advisors are trying to poison his Majesty's mind against him. None knows as well as he that the military party is demanding a continuation of the war, and if he disobeys the letter of his instructions he will be accused of unpatriotism. He will be charged with being willing to make peace at any price. No envoy at such a crisis can ever place in so difficult a position. Court intrigue, the curse of Russia, is again in play. Even the members of his entourage could not fathom his intentions when he went to the conference today. One of them said:

HIS OPINION.
"If you want my opinion, it is ninety-five chances out of a hundred that Mr. Witte will not even consider the Japanese proposition. I cannot believe they will absolutely waive indemnity and not substitute something in lieu thereof which will involve money payment by Russia. And if they offer a proposition which again involves indemnity in any amount in a new dress, Mr. Witte, I am satisfied, will not even consider it. He goes to the conference to listen to what they have to say. He will take his place at the conference table and sit silent until they have finished. Then he will reply. Perhaps he did not himself know when he left the hotel what reply he would give."

STRONG CARD.
Just before the conference met the Associated Press received an intimation that Baron Komura held a strong card in reserve which would make it almost impossible for Mr. Witte to reject the second proposal without submitting it to the Emperor. Should the first proposal be refused, the information of the Associated Press is that Baron Komura would then present his second, a wholesale proposal to arbitrate all unadjusted propositions before the conference.

COULD NOT REFUSE.
It is hardly conceivable that Mr. Witte would dare to refuse to place before the author of the Hague tribunal such a proposition. To do so would be for him to court both for himself and his sovereign a universal outburst of denunciation. The departure of the envoys for the conference this morning was more than usual, and the hotel guests when they came down to see them off, were disappointed to find that they had already gone.

The weather was superb. The Russians were first off. Mr. Witte and Baron de Rosen left shortly after 9 o'clock and Baron Komura and Minister Takihira twenty-five minutes later. Both parties went in automobiles.

THE SECRETARIES.
The secretaries of each side had preceded their principals in launches. The Japanese it was noticed, were loaded down with dress suit cases, evidently containing papers and documents, while Mr. Plancon carried a single "dossier" case.

AT LUNCHEON.
Mr. Witte, accompanied by Baron de Rosen, came to the hotel for lunch. There was a wonderful demonstration on their arrival, great crowd collected under the portico and the annex where the Russians are quartered and when their automobiles drew up the air was torn with frantic cheers. Hats were thrown aloft. Mr. Witte as he stepped out of the motor car, seemed quite overcome. Too full for utterance, he could only grasp and shake the hands that were extended to him.

BOTH MOVED.
Baron de Rosen also was equally moved and received the congratulations of the crowd. For about five minutes the two were kept upon the porch listening to the incoherent praises of the crowd. Then they moved to the door. Mr. Witte encountered the members of the Russian legation who rushed forth to shake his hand. Briefly in Russian he gave them the joyful tidings. Then he started up the stairs the newspaper correspondents clamored for information.

"What have you done? How is it settled?" they cried.

"We pay not a kopeck of indemnity," he said, as he turned at the landing half way up the stairs. "We got half of Sakhalien. That is the agreement in a nutshell."

The two envoys have respectively proposed to their Emperors the conclusion of an immediate armistice. The details of the armistice will be discussed at this afternoon's meeting and immediately the question of release of the Russian prisoners.

AT OYSTER BAY.
OYSTER BAY, August 29.—President Roosevelt received the news that the peace envoys at Portsmouth had reached an agreement in his library at Sagamore Hill. He was at the time engaged on some matters with Secretary Loeb concerning the peace negotiations. The information had come to him from the Associated Press in the form of a bulletin announcing the envoys had agreed on all points which had been the subject of conference. While the President had been hopeful that such an agreement would be reached he was surprised that it had come today. His belief had been that arrangements if made at all, would not be made before tomorrow. He expressed to his informant his gratification that a peaceful solution of the differences had been reached. He excused himself, however, from making any statement on the subject, regarding the action of the conference until he should have been informed officially of that action.

FISHED AND DID NOT GIVE NOTICE

EDINBURGH, August 29.—The trial of J. S. and H. C. Phillips, sons of Henry Phillips of Pittsburgh began here today. The defendants are charged with shooting and wounding three salmon fishers July 5, on the Beaufort Castle estate, Invernesshire, which is leased by Mr. Phillips, senior. Alexander McRae, head salmon fisher for the estate, said they made the mistake of fishing at midnight without notifying Mr. Phillips.

EPIDEMIC TAKES UNFAVORABLE TURN

MANILA, Aug. 29.—The cholera epidemic has taken a rather unfavorable turn. Since 8 o'clock this morning until six in the evening there have been eleven new cases reported among the natives. The total number of cases treated since the outbreak has been forty with deaths numbering 25.

TO EXTERMINATE BAND OF THIEVES

WARSAW, August 29.—The peasants in the surrounding districts are making determined efforts to exterminate the bands of thieves who have been committing extensive depredations. On August 26, eleven thieves were killed and fifty wounded. The peasants have organized to resist them, and a conflict is imminent.

ELECTRIC CAR RUNS AWAY AND ONE IS KILLED—MANY INJURED

Motorman Lost Control of the Car and It Went Dashing Down the Hill at Terrific Speed.

LOS ANGELES, August 29.—An electric car on the Los Angeles-Pacific Railroad on the Hollywood line, got beyond control of the motorman at the top of Bellevue Avenue hill at seven o'clock this morning, rushed down the grade at terrific speed, leaving the rails at San Fernando street, and turned completely over. There were about fifty passengers in the car. Of these one was killed and eleven injured. Following is the list of casualties:

DEAD:
William D. Irwin, manager of the Standard Biscuit Company, 335 North Main street, lived at 2027 Oak street.

Injured:
Mrs. Lea McManis, 1539 Eagle Park Road, bruised.

Miss Edna Webb, 1830 Echo Park Road, bruised head.

H. F. Schill, railroad man, Orange Avenue and Sunset Boulevard, bruised.

Earl Keller, 17, employed by Baker Iron Works, right leg lacerated.

F. C. Probst, printer, 1440 Logan street, left leg bruised; taken home by friends.

Fred Dirkes, lineman, Hollywood, left leg and shoulder bruised.

Charlie Lash, Hollywood, compound fracture of forearm; will have to be amputated.

E. D. Chaffee, grocery solicitor, 13 Avalon, crushed hip; condition critical.

E. Ziegler, Ohio manufacturer, arm fractured.

W. D. Sanders, driver, thrown from wagon and right hip injured.

D. E. Payne, carpenter, severely bruised.

The car was coming down the hill on Bellevue Avenue at tremendous rate of speed, according to eye witnesses, and when the motorman applied the airbrake it failed to work.

The hand brake could not be operated quickly enough, and the motorman lost control of the car.

When it reached San Fernando street the trucks remained on the track, but the strain was so great that the bolts were broke and the body of the car leaped into the air and turned over.

When the car left the trucks it struck a mail wagon, throwing the driver, W. D. Sanders, to the ground.

He was taken to the Receiving Hospital. The injured were quickly taken to the hospital, where they were given medical attention.

The passengers in the car say they noticed the car was coming down the hill, and that the motorman was having difficulty with the brakes, but did not realize that a serious accident was impending. The trolley, it is said, slipped from the wheel, making it impossible for the motorman to reverse.

OAKLAND CITIZENS WANT FRANCHISE GRANTED

They Believe a Competitive System Will Give Them an Improved Service at Lower Rates.

Those Who Have Tried the Automatic Service Express Unqualified Preference For It.

Public opinion is strongly in favor of the Council granting the Home Telephone Company of Alameda county a franchise to install an automatic telephone system in Oakland.

For business reasons many men do not desire to express themselves in print, but an overwhelming majority of the men spoken to on the subject unhesitatingly declare in favor of competition.

Every person who has examined into the workings of the automatic system express a preference for it, and manifest pleasure at the prospect of an automatic service being established in Oakland. The solid financial backing of the Home Telephone Company has also given it a strong claim on popular favor. Below are printed the views of many citizens who desire the Council to grant the franchise.

A. H. ELLIOT.

Albert E. Elliot, attorney and member of the City Council—It is too early to express an opinion as to the features of the proposed Home Telephone franchise. I have not as yet given the matter any consideration. I believe in competition along all lines of effort—competition of a wholesome and commendable character. I believe in competition, consequently, in the telephone business as in everything else I think in this case it would tend to improve the telephone which is now so wretched that I think it could hardly be worse. These are general remarks, however, without special knowledge of the features of the proposed new telephone franchise.

O. F. BREILING.

O. F. Breiling, president of the West Oakland Bank—I am strongly in favor of giving the Home Telephone Company a franchise to do business in this city. It would tend to give us a better telephone service. I favor competition in the telephone business as in anything else I realize that every merchant would have to put a second telephone in his place of business in order to accommodate people who would patronize the new telephone company. That would be an additional expense on merchants, but I think they would get a benefit from it which would repay them and at the same time insure a better service from the old system.

WILLIAM WALSH.

Wm. Walsh, capitalist and president of the West Oakland Improvement Association—I think the granting of a franchise to the Home Telephone Company would be an excellent one. The more competition of a practical character we have in business the better it is for the people. Just see what an amount of money the new company would spend in this city. That would help the city itself and it would also help the taxpayers out. Anything that will bring money to be spent in this city I am in favor of. I am really in favor of granting a franchise to this new telephone company.

JUDGE W. R. GEARY.

W. R. Geary, Justice of the Peace, East Oakland—I believe in giving every one a fair show. I have nothing against the present telephone company, but if a new one wants to come in, believing it has a good thing, I think the City Council should give it a chance to show what it can do. The new company also promises to put its wires under ground and this is a lead in the right direction.

JUDGE STETSON.

Judge John W. Stetson, attorney-at-law—If the directors of the Home Telephone Company want a telephone franchise give it to them. At the present time we are not overburdened with good service and the competition caused by another good live company coming in here will improve the service. There can be no harm but much good done by giving the new company a franchise.

HENRY LONG.

Henry Long, Deputy Treasurer—I have no particular complaint to make about the old company, but the new company is also inoffensive and I believe that they should both be given equal consideration by the City Council. If the Home Telephone Company means business give it a franchise. The competition will undoubtedly bring with it good results. In my opinion the Council should grant the franchise.

BERT BERCOVICH.

Bert Bertovich, cigars, Twelfth street and Broadway—I am in favor of the Council granting a franchise to any telephone company which will give the best possible service to the business men of this city.

DAVID MITCHELL.

David Mitchell, attorney, 954 Broadway—I do not believe in monopoly of any kind. I have been over a large part of the world and wherever I have been monopoly means serfdom. Give the new company a chance. If it is a good thing it will help the city and if it is no good only the company will lose by it. I believe the City Council will make a great mistake to refuse any new enterprise an opportunity to do business here.

L. J. MURPHY.

Leander J. Murphy, searcher of records, 1003 1/2 Broadway—I have seen the Home Telephone work and it is the handiest thing I ever saw. There is no butting in on the line or anything of that sort. You indicate the number you want and get your party, that's all there is to it. For these reasons I believe it is a good thing and would like to see the City Council give the company a chance.

I. H. HEROLD.

I. H. Herold, real estate, 622 East Twelfth street—People are tired of the inconvenience of the old system and if there is any new invention that can beat it I say trot it out. The City Council should not have to be asked twice for a franchise. It would do away with more worry and annoyance than anything I know of.

B. B. BRENTNER.

B. B. Brentner, gun store, 909 Broadway—My experience with the automatic system of the Home Telephone Company at Santa Barbara and Los Angeles has completely converted me to its use. I hope to see it installed here immediately. I would willingly pay double the rate to have the better service that it gives. I know from experience that the automatic system is a saver of time and temper. A connection to any place can be made in a few seconds, while the other requires that many minutes. The new system is sure to come into general use here, as it has become farther South.

C. H. FULLER.

C. H. Fuller, liquor store, 915 Broadway—From all sources that I can hear from, the automatic system of the Home Telephone Company is a great success. If it gives such good satisfaction in Los Angeles and nearby cities, it very likely will do as much for us. I am certainly in favor of granting the company a franchise and permitting them to install their system. Competition is always a good thing and I fancy it would improve our telephone service here to a large extent.

R. W. MERRICK.

R. W. Merrick, bakery, 26 San Pablo avenue—It is time that there was a move made to get better telephonic service. If the Home Company will bring better conditions then it should be welcomed. The City Council should be urged to take up the matter of granting the new corporation a franchise at once and not to delay matters. Twenty-four hours after the franchise is granted we would begin to get better service.

WARD L. PELTON.

Ward L. Pelton, manager Senram & Company, shoe store, 1003 Broadway—There is no question that we need a competitive telephone company in this city. The present service is not by any means what it might be and competition is the only thing that will improve it. The automatic system appears to have enough good features to endorse it to the public and would probably have very little trouble in finding a foothold here. It is only fair to everyone, the people, the telephone company and the Council, to grant the franchise.

L. G. ATKINS.

L. G. Atkins, manager the Wiley B. Allen Piano Company, 951 Broadway—Every member of this firm is unqualifiedly for the introduction of the new telephone system by the Home Telephone Company. The advantages offered by their automatic instruments are in themselves so superior to the old method now installed here that I cannot see how any live merchant or for that matter anyone else would not give the new company a hearty welcome here. I say, give them a franchise.

A. RITTIGSTEIN.

A. Rittigstein, hardware, 971 Broadway—A test phone of the Home Telephone Company's automatic system has been in my store for several days. It works so well and is so much superior to the old method of telephoning that I shall have nothing else if I can get the automatic. The connection is secured immediately and it stays connected until the receiver is hung up. I have lost lots of business because of poor telephone service and I welcome the project of the new company.

JAMES KELLER.

James Keller of Keller & Fitzgerald, clothing, 1001 Broadway—Although I know very little about the workings of the automatic telephone system, I certainly favor a new company, the competition brought by them would improve matters. We have competition in our business, it keeps us on the alert and up-to-date, it would act the same on the telephone companies. Competition is the life of trade. We need it in our telephone system as well as elsewhere.

JOHN G. WHITE.

John G. White, master painter—There is certainly no use in granting the present telephone company a monopoly in perpetuity. If the new company will bring competition then its advent should be welcomed here. I think that a new company is needed very much. It will improve conditions immediately. The telephonic service will be better. In view of the fact that the Home Telephone Company has been operated successfully in other cities Oakland should not hesitate in adopting it.

GEORGE HERZER.

George Herzer, drugs, corner of Twentieth and San Pablo avenue—While I have not investigated the question fully I believe that competition will be of vast benefit to Oakland and I think that the City Council should not put anything in the way of the new company. There is no good reason why one company should have a monopoly. As the Home Company proposes to spend more than $750,000 in this city it would be foolish for the Council to do anything else but grant the company a franchise.

C. J. COOK.

C. J. Cook, art store, 127 San Pablo avenue—Quote me as being in favor of the competing company. It will be good for the town to have two companies here and it will be better for the companies too. They will have to keep on good terms with their patrons. Grant the franchise.

STEWART & DRAIS.

Stewart & Drais, confectioners, 115 San Pablo avenue—You can state that we are in favor of the Home Telephone Company securing a franchise here. We would like to see a competing company open up, it needs something like that to wake up the old company. Our service at present is very bad, too many delays, too many interruptions, too much money for the quality of the service.

T. FLEMING.

T. Fleming, harness shop, 111 San Pablo—I have nothing against the old company, their service is not good but I fancy they have troubles to contend with. A competing company, however, will be a good thing and will stir the present corporation into renewed efforts to improve their service. You can list me as being in favor of the granting of the franchise.

W. B. GREENEBAUM.

W. B. Greenebaum, optician, 127 San Pablo avenue—A competing telephone system will be a good thing for this city. You can't expect progress without it. I am in favor of granting a franchise to the Home Company, although I don't know just what their automatic phones are capable of. If they are all that is said they are so much the better.

C. E. BERRY.

C. E. Berry, manager Regal shoe store, 22 San Pablo—Certainly, give the new telephone company a franchise. We want the competition and besides the automatic phones are the telephone of the future. I don't want to knock on the telephone girls, but they are not as perfect as an automatic device; they never will be. I say grant the franchise.

C. KYDD.

C. Kydd, member of Taft & Penoyer, dry goods, 1161 Broadway—From the reports regarding the qualities of the automatic telephone system I am assured that it is a very good service and I hope it will be installed here. The lack of privacy which has to be endured from the old method is at times as exasperating that one feels inclined to try to get along without a phone service. The new company has my endorsement. I hope they will come to this city and they certainly ought to get a franchise.

H. MORTON.

H. Morton, jeweler, successor to A. Steffanoni & Co., 1161 Broadway—I have just come to this town, but the telephone rates charged here are greatly in excess of the rates paid for the same service in other towns where I have been. I think this is partly due to the monopoly which the old company enjoys here. A competing company would surely improve matters and assure a better service. I have heard of the automatic system now installed in many cities in the Southern part of the State and the consensus of opinion from those who are familiar with the system is that it has many advantages over the old method. I endorse the project and hope the Council grants the franchise.

D. J. CLARK.

D. J. Clark, cigars, 1072 Broadway—You can't install the new service fast enough to suit me. Any company that can do what the Home Telephone Company can should certainly be given a chance to do business. By all means grant the franchise.

GEORGE H. SMITH.

George H. Smith, hardware, 1213 San Pablo avenue—I believe in giving any concern with a legitimate business proposition to offer a chance. For that reason I am in favor of granting a franchise to the new telephone company. The competition alone, resulting from the presence of two companies in the field, will go far in improving conditions.

A. S. COHN.

A. S. Cohn, furnishing goods, 1071 Broadway—Put me down by all means as in favor of granting the franchise. Competition is the life of trade. The introduction of a new telephone system will make lower rates and better service for the subscribers if it does nothing else. Furthermore, if the new company can do one half of what it claims to be able to do, and I see no reason for doubting it, it will do away with many of the inconveniences of the present manual system.

GEORGE FAKE.

George Fake, jeweler, 1113 Broadway—I have often heard of the workings of the automatic telephone system from friends in the southern part of the State, where it is installed. It is undoubtedly a great improvement and Oakland should have no hesitancy in granting the franchise.

SHAW AND SHAW.

Shaw and Shaw, photographers, 1115 Broadway—From what I hear of the automatic telephone system, it is one of the wonders of the age, doing away with operators, and substituting a perfect machine. Just think of not having to have to wait for central to answer you, or of not being told, as one often is, "line is busy," after you have had your ear to the receiver for ten minutes. Certainly grant the franchise.

W. N. JENKINS.

W. N. Jenkins, jeweler, 1067 Broadway—No central, no annoying delays, no being cut off when you are in the midst of an important conversation, of course I am in favor of those things. Who wouldn't be? I don't see any reason for hesitating. When I get a chance to get a good thing I do not hesitate to take it, and the people of Oakland should feel the same way about it.

McMILLAN & COX.

McMillan & Cox, grocers, southwest corner of Seventh and Market streets—The application of the Home Telephone Company for a franchise should be granted by the Council because, so far as we know, by so doing, the Council will voice the wishes of the people. A few days ago the Council granted a franchise for an electric railway on East Fourteenth street against the protest of the resident property owners on that street because it seemed to the Councilmen that the granting of the franchise would result in an accommodation and more speedy means of reaching points in Alameda and in the interior of the country which could not result otherwise than as an advantage to the people. A new telephone line would also be an advantage to the people and to business men. It would result in a better service and this is of the greatest importance to people at home as also to business men. There are people who will not use the old telephone and who will use the new one. We will have to put in a new one, but we will thus have so many new people who could not have reached us by wire before. Our experience will be that, we think, of all merchants. Besides, this new company will necessarily have to spend money in establishing its equipment here, money for real estate, buildings and labor and that means another great benefit to the community. We hope the franchise will be granted.

J. SEULBERGER.

J. Seulberger, florist, 414 Fourteenth street—The automatic telephone service means progress and that is a watchword which I am always ready to follow. When I first began business I heated my greenhouses with hot air, subsequently hot water came into use and I discarded the other arrangement. A few years later steam became popular and I changed again. It was the same with light, beginning with candles and ending with electricity. Every change meant improvement and advance. It is the same with the telephone. It too has been continually improved from the time it was first invented. Now that a way has been found for having automatic arrangements for securing connections in place of the hello girls, I say let us make the change promptly. As soon as the system is installed I shall certainly have the automatic phone.

W. B. RAGLAND.

W. B. Ragland, manager Sherman, Clay & Company, 1118-1120 Broadway—I signed a petition requesting a franchise for this telephone company today which suggests that I am positively in favor of having the automatic system installed here. It will be a good thing for Oakland. It will suggest to visitors that we are up-to-date and besides afford a better service. The fact that the two companies will be in competition means improvement in the service.

LANCASTER & LANCASTER.

Lancaster & Lancaster, sporting goods, 109 San Pablo—We do not hesitate to endorse the project of giving a franchise to the Home Telephone Company for instituting the automatic system in this city. We believe if the matter were put to a vote the result would be almost unanimous for granting the franchise. Aside from those who are personally dissatisfied with the service rendered by the present company, a large majority favor progress in whatever form it appears. The automatic system is it appears. The automatic system is

JAMES McMANUS.

James McManus, funeral director, Castro and Seventh streets—I am in favor of the new telephone company getting a franchise, because it would be a convenience to the public. There ought to be competition in everything. I will say this without being inconsistent, because I would not be afraid if we had more funeral directors in this city. The people would then have better service. If they were not satisfied with one service they would have another company to fall back on. When we want anything we want it badly, and if we have one place to get it that place is likely to do just as it pleases in accommodating us. I have always signed in favor of all moves for a competing telephone here and when the Council grants this franchise I will sign in favor of the new telephone company. There ought to be no hesitancy on the part of the Council granting this telephone franchise and, if there is, the people should go to the Council and convince the Councilmen that this franchise is demanded by the necessities of the community and the welfare of private and mercantile interests.

O. D. HAMLIN.

Dr. O. D. Hamlin, physician and surgeon—I believe the people of Oakland will heartily welcome a competitive telephone system. Personally, I am very much in favor of seeing such an institution established. I have made some investigation of the Oakland Home Telephone Company of Alameda County, and feel assured it will give a first-class telephone system to Oakland. The great success that the company has met with in Los Angeles and other cities along the Coast, as well as in Eastern States, is a guarantee that this city will have a first class telephone system if the new company is granted a franchise by the City Council. I, for one would not like to see any stumbling block placed in the way of the company. It will spend a large amount of money in this city within the next year or two, in the construction of buildings and the establishment of its system generally, and for this reason alone, everyone who is interested in the prosperity of Oakland should extend to the new company a helping hand.

I. TOBRINER.

I. Tobriner, druggist, Market and Seventh streets—I am in favor of competition in the telephone service and, as a consequence, of the granting of the franchise of the new company. It means, of course, that every merchant will be required to have two telephones, one of each company, but I think that will result advantageously because there will be so many more homes which will get telephones which have not got them now. I think, however, that it is only a matter of time when we will be able to get two telephones for the price of one. Los Angeles has two telephone systems and the people pay no more for two telephones than we pay for one. At least, I have been told that in Los Angeles the people pay only $4 for a main line telephone, whereas here we have to pay $7 a month for the same kind of a phone.

M. T. GRATZ.

M. T. Gratz, manager Peerless Tailoring Company, 453 Tenth street—I believe in competition. It causes better service and lower prices, among telephone companies as in other businesses. I would like to see the Home Telephone Company have an exchange in every town on the Pacific Coast, so that we might have a long-distance as well as a local service. The City Council should lose no time in granting the franchise.

BERT. H. SARGEANT.

Bert H. Sargeant, undertaker, 533 Fourteenth street—I believe that for business men especially the automatic telephone will be of great benefit. Time is one of the most valuable things a business man has, and the saving of time by means of a phone that needs no central to operate it, and that answers immediately is an inestimable advantage. I am certainly in favor of granting the Home Telephone Company the franchise. It asks for

DARING BURGLAR CAUGHT AT BERKELEY

Robert Linham Makes a Full Confession to Marshal Vollmer.

BERKELEY, August 29.—A week's work on the part of Marshal Vollmer and his detectives has resulted in the capture of one of the most daring burglars on the Pacific Coast in the person of Robert Linham. The prisoner has made a full confession to Marshal Vollmer of the theories of burglars in cities on this side of the bay during the last three months. He has admitted that he has served three terms in San Quentin, having been convicted on a burglary charge in San Francisco in each case.

The police were informed last week by M. W. P. Alben, a real estate dealer of Berkeley, that jewelry valued at about $300 had been taken from his home at 2415 Durant street last Tuesday. Detectives were at once sent out to work on the case and after investigation decided that the job was done by men who worked in the house polishing the floors. Each workman was looked up, and it was discovered that one of them, Robert Linham, had given a false address. This circumstance led to the belief that he might be the man desired and a close watch was kept on his movements. It was found that instead of living in Oakland, at the Eureka Hotel, his alleged address, he had a room at 2114 Center street, in Berkeley. Last Saturday night the room of Edward Johnson at 2114 Center street was entered and a quantity of jewelry taken. Linham's room was directly opposite the hall from Johnson's apartments. This helped to convince the officers that they were on the trail of the right man, and yesterday they arrested Linham on the streets in Oakland. He was brought to Marshal Vollmer's office and examined for two hours. At the end of the examination Linham broke down and confessed to all the burglaries to which he was charged. He also admitted that he was responsible for a large number of other affairs in the cities on this side of the bay, and that he had served three terms in San Quentin on burglary convictions.

Marshal Vollmer was given an account of the places where the stolen jewelry had been deposited, and all the property will be recovered. Linham had planted it in saloon, pawnbrokers' shops and in other places in Oakland and San Francisco.

Linham is about 32 years old, has curly hair, and has almost a boyish appearance. He is a smooth talker and a man little likely to be suspected of having the records he has confessed to.

The police officers regard him as one of the most dangerous crooks on the Pacific coast. His confession will certainly result in his conviction and imprisonment, and Marshal Vollmer of Berkeley is receiving congratulations upon his success in running to earth so dangerous a character. Detective Parker was sent to San Francisco this afternoon to procure all the details regarding Linham's past, and his convictions in that city. No formal charge has been placed against Linham as yet, but before night he will be formally charged with grand larceny, and taken to the County Jail. He is at this time in the office of Marshal Vollmer in Berkeley, where he will remain until Detective Parker returns from San Francisco, and will then be taken to Oakland.

PLEASED WITH THE PRESIDENT

Peace Congress is Grati-fied Over Roosevelt's Course.

BRUSSELS, August 28.—The opening of the inter-parliamentary convention in the National Palace this morning was the occasion for a notable demonstration on behalf of President Roosevelt and success of the Peace Conference at Portsmouth. The session was held in the Senate Chamber of the palace. Delegations representing the leading parliaments were present.

Baron Fervariou, the Belgian Minister of Foreign Affairs, paid a flattering tribute to the American President. The convention adopted a resolution, resolutions of thanks to President Roosevelt, and the secretary was instructed to cable the following: "President Roosevelt, Oyster Bay.—The inter-parliamentary congress at Brussels assembled sends greetings and has the honor to advise you that it has passed resolutions expressing its high appreciation of your action in calling a second conference at The Hague in the interest of international peace, and its profound thanks for your noble efforts in the interest of humanity, to terminate the Russo-Japanese war."

The congress afterwards discussed the American proposition for a model arbitration treaty. Congressman Richard Bartholdt speaking in favor. Herr Von Plessner president of the Austrian house opposed immediate action, owing to the magnitude of the subject. Mr. Bartholdt presented the report in behalf of the United States.

HE CRITICISES THE GOVERNOR

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 29.—J. S. McCracken, secretary of district nineteen criticizes the Governor for calling out the troops. He said: "Recently the consolidated Coal Company leased to J. B. Rust and Dick Henley, who were killed, and John McGovern, who was injured an old mine, and they had a row with certain parties who also wanted the mine. This brought about the shooting and union and non-union miners had nothing to do with it."

COLLAPSE IN SUGAR MARKET

PARIS, Aug. 29.—There was another collapse in the sugar market today, owing to the sudden death under circumstances indicating suicide of Ernest Crozier, chairman of the board of directors of the Say Sugar Refinery, the most important concern in the trade. Shares fell 390 points from $70 to $30. The foreign exchanges, according to report, have not been affected by the incident.

SEVEN CASES OF CHOLERA

BERLIN, Aug. 29.—The visit of the today says that since August 16th, seven cholera cases, three of which were fatal, have occurred in the Weichsel district, east Prussia. Traffic from Weichsel is placed under government control.

SIR HARRY SAID TO BE FREAK

Physician Declares That Heart Will Not Stay In Place.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—Why Ernest Moore Chadwick, alias "Sir Harry" Westwood Cooper, has proved fickle in his many love affairs is explained at last. According to expert medical testimony, given in court this morning, he has a migratory heart. No doubt this means that each of his numerous marriages was made in good faith; that he honestly intended to settle down and be a good husband, and that he failed solely because his vagrant heart insisted on wandering. It wouldn't stay put. Sometimes it slipped over to the right side, but even then it was on the wrong side. No matter what the head said, "Sir Harry" had to follow his heart, and as his heart was wrong from birth he can't see why he should be held responsible. Not only is the rebellious organ migratory, but it is enlarged, which accounts for his promise to settle large estates on his brides. This explains all, and consequently the prisoner looks confidently forward to a verdict of acquittal.

FEDERAL COURTS HAVE OPENED

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—The Federal Courts convened today for the first time in their new quarters in the postoffice building at the corner of Mission and Seventh streets. No ceremony marked their change of location.

ESTATE OF THE LATE JULIUS REIS

SAN FRANCISCO, August 29.—The appraisement and inventory of the estate of the late Julius C. Reis, capitalist, was filed today in the probate department of the Superior Court. Its value is given at $743,666.

HE IS ACCUSED BY A WOMAN

SAN JOSE, Cal., August 29.—Jack Connolly completed a six months' term in the County Jail this morning for robbing a local saloon, and was immediately taken in charge by a Modesto officer on a charge of grand larceny, preferred by Pearl Grey, of that town, who accuses him of having stolen her clothing and jewelry.

CHANNEL FLEET ON A VISIT

BERLIN, August 28.—The visit of the British channel fleet to the German Baltic ports, beginning with Swinemunde, has been received with a show of courtesy and pleasure by the German naval authorities. The newspapers carefully avoid saying anything unpleasant and there is evident determination to treat the visitors properly.

COLLINS WEARY OF BATTLE

Henpecked by his Mother-In-Law He Wanted to Surrender.

VICTORIA, B. C., August 29.—The trial of George D. Collins, the San Francisco attorney, charged with bigamy and perjury, came within an ace of having an unexpected and startling termination Saturday. In one of his moments of pique and discouragement Collins decided to abandon all further opposition and to face the men whom he calls conspirators rather than longer endure the intolerable henpecking of Mrs. McCurdy, snatched by the woman whom he calls his wife. Had Detective Gibson been looking for an easy way of getting possession of his prisoner, it is possible that Saturday night's boat would have borne Collins to Seattle on the first leg of his journey to San Francisco.

Gibson's first indication of Collins' decision came in a telephone message to him at the Victoria Hotel. "Is that you, Gibson?" asked the fugitive lawyer.

"Yes." "Will you come up to my quarters, room 26, Dillard Hotel? I have decided to surrender myself, and am ready to turn myself over to your custody."

Gibson avoided a definite answer, but after consulting the legal advisers sent back a message to Collins that if Mr. Collins wanted to discuss the matter of surrendering he could do so by coming to his apartments at the Victoria Hotel. In the meantime he prepared for his visitor by notifying Whiting and Frank Higgins, his counsel, to be present when Collins arrived.

But Collins never came. It appears that the hostilities which opened between Collins and Mrs. McCurdy a week or ten days ago, and which were chronicled at the time, have only been temporarily patched up. Between the older woman and Collins there is no love lost, and Collins does not conceal the fact to use his own words, "that she is a devil of a temper." Signs are not wanting either that love of Collins for Collins, future accused, is not as ardent or as amorous as it was for Collins, eminent counsel of San Francisco. Knowing that Collins is so keenly and that mother holds the pursestrings, Collins evidently thinks that both for her sake and his, it is desirable to stand in with the treasurer of the combination. The older woman is still anxious to take up housekeeping, but plans she had laid to rent the fine residence on Fenwick road, now occupied by the United States customs house, and therefore arranged to take housekeeping rooms on Port street in a very undesirable way, and it was obvious that the capture of Collins and his counsel on Saturday.

Collins took exception to the humble character of the accommodation she provided for him, and Mrs. McCurdy replied with the obvious retort that as it was her money, which was being put up, she didn't think he should have much to say about it. She further added that she would have a little to say to the matter herself. Then Collins broke out in a passionate attack on the woman, employing such ending terms as "bag," etc., as on the former occasion when the two fell out. Mrs. McCurdy replied in hot and bitter language, but the last straw was the participation of Collins for whose sake Collins reluctantly ever took the side of his mother. Both women assailed him bitterly, but when the two addressed him as "bigamous scoundrel" and "scoundrel" he remained in the room just long enough to inform them that he proposed to return to the bay city and face the charges rather than longer endure their abuse.

"SCOTTY" HAS MANY CALLERS

Millionaire From Death Valley Talks About Booze.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—"Scotty" of Death Valley never will be lonely so long as his purse holds out. He had a string of callers on when this morning at the Palace and though he invariably sees all who come, visitors are beginning to bore him.

He went to bed about 5 this morning, and was up again at half past 6 and indulged in a plate of scrambled eggs and a quart of champagne. Then he went out and told all future visitors that he would be out all day. "My brother came to see me," said Scotty this morning.

"He is a good fellow, but he went off and drank all the fire whisky that he could get hold of, and then queer ideas got into his brain. 'Why, do you know after he swallowed that booze he got the notion that I owed him $20,000. I just went to find a place where he got that liquor and I'll go and buy a barrel of it.'"

Mr. Scott then went out of the hotel. He thinks the Palace is a pretty good hotel, and when he has the time he intends to make a thorough examination of the place from the top floor to the cellar. Mrs. Scott has not yet arrived from Los Angeles, and he yet thinks that when she does arrive he will have to get busy and secure that train.

GREAT FIRE IN THE SOUTH

Valuable Pasture Lands are Threatened by Flames.

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 29.—A forest and grass fire, which, it is feared, accounts at present obtainable, appears to have spread over a large area between Bear Mountain and the Southern Pacific tracks, burned fiercely yesterday and last night and is now threatening a large area of valuable pasture lands and large herds of cattle.

From what can be learned at the local offices of the Kern County Land Company it appears that the worst of the fire is in the foothills east of Bear Mountain, and from the fact that no word has been received from the Bear Mountain ranch it is thought that the entire ranch is now being fought by the fire. During all of the night the fire was plainly visible from Bakersfield. There was a lurid glare from the summit of Bear Mountain far down the slope. There was a rumor here today that the flames had spread to Mount Breakridge and were eating their way toward the Kern river canyon and the works and lines of the Power Development Company. Bear Mountain is hidden today in dense smoke.

RESCUED IN THE FOREST

SAN FRANCISCO, August 29.—All fears that Etienne Messager, proprietor of the clock and suit house at Post street and Grant Avenue, had met death in the Sonoma wilderness were set at rest this morning when his family received word at the home, 933 Post street, that he had been rescued by a searching party in charge of Postmaster Morgan of Sea View. His escape was a narrow one, for though an old man of 62, he had wandered through the woods two days and a night without hope of relief.

When found he was in good health, though very much exhausted and somewhat weak from hunger. When he started out he carried with him only his luncheon so that during most of the time he was without food save what wild berries he could find. As it is he will only suffer from the shock of his gruesome experience.

Messager arrived at Sea View last Friday and at once planned a solitary fishing excursion. He started on Saturday morning and as he did not return that night considerable anxiety was entertained for his safety. A searching party was organized and managed to trace his path to the spot where he had eaten his luncheon. A little farther on the trail was lost and all efforts to recover it seemed hopeless. The search was temporarily given up, but was resumed later and finally prosecuted to success.

The absentee had wandered a considerable distance from Sea View and had missed his direction entirely, going deeper and deeper into the forest. He had intended to connect with King's ranch, above Cazadero, but never reached it. Had his rescuers not found him when they did his experience would probably have proved fatal, for his provisions were gone and he was already much exhausted.

His wife and son, Francis Messager, had been greatly worried over his long absence, and were inclined to fear the worst until they were reassured by a telegram from Postmaster Morgan this morning.

TOULON, August 29.—The French naval authorities have been ordered to hold two cruisers in readiness to proceed to Morocco in case the Sultan's reply to the French demands in reference to the imprisonment of the French Algerian merchant, Bouzian, are unsatisfactory.

MANY OF CREW WERE DROWNED

JACKSONVILLE, Florida, August 29.—The American steamship Peconic encountered a fierce gale early today off the coast of Florida. Twenty of the crew of twenty-two were drowned. The ship was struck by an enormous wave, the cargo shifted and the ship sank. Two of the crew, an Italian and a Spaniard, secured the life boat and landed on Amelia Beach and told the story of the disaster.

The first Japanese newspaper was published in 1853, and contained news translated from Dutch newspapers. Today Japan has over 1,500 newspapers, and several of them are in English.

PHENOMENAL SUCCESS OF TELEPHONE COMPETITION

Better Service and Lower Rates Among the Benefits Resulting From Competitive Rivalry—Automatic System Highly Popular.

What Bankers, Merchants, and Officials Say of Independent Service in Cities Where it Has Been Established.

The rapid rise of the independent telephone systems, which are mainly automatic, in contradistinction to the Bell systems, which are exclusively manual in operation, is a striking phenomenon of modern development. It is all the more striking because the independent system had to face long established competition fully in possession of the field, firmly entrenched, financially prosperous and accept them under restrictions and conditions which do not apply to their competitors giving the public an efficient service.

Yet, according to work on Telephone Development just published by Vinton E. Sears of Boston, the status of the telephone industry today is shown by the following table:

BELL SYSTEMS.
Number of systems.....	44
Number of main exchanges.....	1,600
Number of branch offices.....	2,000
Number of switchboards.....	4,000
Subscribers.....	1,800,000

INDEPENDENT SYSTEMS.
Invested capital.....	$250,000,000
Number of systems.....	5,000
Number of public exchanges.....	7,500
Number of switchboards.....	8,000
Subscribers to exchange service.....	2,000,000

Yet the independent systems have only been in existence about eight years, while the Bell systems were in undisputed possession of the field for twenty years, owing to the exclusive ownership of certain patent rights which gave the Bell people complete mastery of the telephone field in the United States during the life of the patents.

The original Bell patents have expired, however, and the methods of telephoning have been greatly improved and varied by new devices and patented improvements on the original Bell method.

One of the most notable improvements is the invention of the automatic switchboard, which enables subscribers to call each other without the aid of a third party at the central switchboard.

ADVANTAGES OF COMPETITION.

The Strowger system, which is the one the Home Telephone Company proposes to operate in Oakland, is the latest and most perfect automatic device yet invented. It has revolutionized the telephone business wherever it has been installed. The chief merits of the Strowger Automatic system are:

- Low cost of operation.
- Simplicity of mechanical arrangement.
- Expedition and convenience.
- Privacy and freedom from interruption.
- The difference between the automatic and manual systems is thus explained by a bulletin issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor.

CALL STONES REMOVED

A New Remedy for This Serious Trouble Which Affects Like Magic.

The most frequent and least suspected cause of stomach trouble is the presence of gall stones, caused by an unhealthy condition of the bile, which has become thickened and gummy and adheres to the walls of the duct in thickened, cheesy masses, around which the biliary salts have been deposited and hardened, forming the so-called stones, these prevent the flow of bile necessary to complete digestion, which being forced into the general circulation, causes the shallow complexion so often accompanying stomach trouble. Appendicitis, so-called, is an intestinal inflammation extending to the quill-like attachment to the caecum, causing the appendix, caused by some irritating matter laid in that part of the intestine.

The Finis Medicine Company, of San Francisco, has discovered a remedy called Fruitola, which acts like magic for these troubles, dissolving the gall-stones, allaying the inflammation and rendering an operation unnecessary. For full particulars of some remarkable cures and pamphlet apply to and the manual systems is thus explained by a bulletin issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor. "The manual switchboard is operated by the hand of the operator, who connects the lines of two subscribers at the central office by means of a pair of flexible insulated wires or cords in accordance with the oral request of one of the subscribers. "An Automatic switchboard is one operated by the subscriber, who by using a device attached to the telephone, makes connection with the line of the person with whom he desires to converse, without the intervention of an operator at central."

CANADIAN VIEW OF COMPETITION.

The Canadian Engineer is the leading technical paper in the Dominion devoted to electrical industries. Its management is conservative and its editorial matter is always authoritative.

It says "The question of starting independent companies should be determined, not by a feeling of resentment against the Bell monopoly, however much this feeling might be justified, but by a cool calculation on the part of local investors as to whether they can give a better service to the people, at a more reasonable price, and at the same time secure a good return for the money invested. The remarkable thing in the history of the independent telephone movement in the States is that in spite of the poor management of many of these local companies, starting as they have without previous experience, and putting in unwisely chosen managers, there have been scarcely any cases of absolute failure, while those few cases of unprofitable investment have been due to causes which would have shown worse results in almost any other business."

ENGLISH VIEW OF MONOPOLY.

The following paragraph is from the London Electrical Engineer.

"Monopoly has nowhere shown itself to be so detrimental to the public good as in the telephone field, as is evidenced by the experience not only of this country, but particularly of the United States and Canada. Happily this state of things in the two last-named countries has in recent years radically changed by the expiration of the fundamental patents. The remarkable growth of independent systems in the States is just beginning to be experienced in Canada, where the future of independent telephony is looked on as already assured. Looking at the progress in the States, it is seen how the business has been developed in the past five years by the independent companies. More independent exchanges have been established, and more telephones put into use during that period than were used during the twenty years previous that the Bell Company held a monopoly. The effect of the competition of these companies has been to bring the rates down to a legitimate basis and to give a first-class service."

COMPETITION IS POPULAR.

In nearly all the cities in the Middle West and the South independent systems have been installed in opposition to the telephone systems already in operation. With few exceptions these competitive enterprises have proved successful both financially and in meeting public favor. In fact, financial success for a competitive company depends upon gaining public favor, hence financial success is a demonstration of popular approval. In nearly every instance competition by independent companies, has resulted in lower rates and better service. Wherever the automatic system is in use it is pronounced by its patrons to be superior to every other method of telephoning.

THE AUTOMATIC SYSTEM IN LOS ANGELES.

The success of the Home Telephone Company, using the automatic system, in Los Angeles has been truly phenomenal. There are nearly 35,000 telephones in use in Los Angeles—the largest proportion of any city in the world, perhaps, and 20,000 of these belong to the Home Telephone Company. Yet the Home Company only began operations in Los Angeles four years ago. Within two years it had 10,000 lines in operation, and in another year it became necessary to increase the equipment, which included 18,000 lines. Since then the company has progressed more rapidly than before, owing to the popularity of the automatic system. It now has seven branch automatic exchanges in operation in Los Angeles. This astonishing success has been achieved in the face of strenuous competition with a long established company closely associated with the strongest telephone combine in the world.

The men who have made such a splendid success of the Home Telephone Company of Los Angeles are backing the Home Telephone Company of Alameda county which is now asking the City Council for a franchise to install a service in Oakland.

HOW THE TWO-SYSTEM WORKS.

Herewith is given a number of testimonials to the advantages of a competitive telephone service and particularly of the automatic system. Office of Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles County, Los Angeles, Cal., June 12, 1905.

To Whom It May Concern: Prior to the advent of the Home Telephone Company, the telephone service in the city of Los Angeles was not the best. The prices for service were high, and the telephone monopoly was felt by the public in general.

Since the Home Telephone Company arrived, the service has been better, and in general competition has been of great benefit to the people.

The Home Telephone Company itself is now giving excellent service at a low rate, and I can recommend the two-telephone system, or, in other words, competition, as being a great benefit to many ways, especially in lower charges for telephone service, better and quicker service, and a greater number of people placed within communication.

Very respectfully,
C. E. PATTERSON, Supervisor.

FROM TOLEDO, OHIO.

The Ohio Savings Bank & Trust Co. Capital, $600,000.00. Surplus, $320,000.00. Toledo, O., May 23, 1905.

The Home Telephone Company, San Francisco, Cal.—Gentlemen: I have been asked to express and give my judgment of the effect of the erection of two competing telephone plants on the interests of a city.

We have passed through that experience in this city, the earliest of the two being the Bell Telephone Company, and the other was the Home Telephone Company of this city. The effect upon the interests of the city have been very much, decidedly so, to its benefit.

The spirit of competition and rivalry is never bad for a community, however fatal it might be to one or the other party creating it. It always results in reduced rates and better service, and much more general use of telephones.

Respectfully,
D. ROBINSON, Jr., President.

IN WILMINGTON, DELAWARE.

The Equitable Guarantee & Trust Company.

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 20, 1905.
Dear Sir: We have two telephone companies here: the Delaware & Atlantic, which is the old company, and the Delmarva, the latter company being established here some five or six years ago.

The new company has rendered good local service, and is gradually extending and now has out-of-town connections to quite a number of places. It has been a benefit to the public in reducing the high rates which were charged before it came into the field; therefore, I consider it beneficial, and I believe that it has been a financial success. Yours respectfully,
OTHO NOWLAND, President.

COMPETITION IN CLEVELAND.

The Union National Bank. Capital, $1,600,000. Surplus, $800,000. Cleveland, O., May 23, 1905.

Mr. Frank P. Graves, No. 310 Sansome street, San Francisco, Cal.—Dear Sir: I am informed by Mr. F. S. Dickson, president of the Federal Telephone Company of this city, that a franchise for an independent telephone company is being asked for in your city, and that there appears to be some feeling among your business men and also among your Councilmen, that an independent telephone company is not of any benefit to telephone subscribers in general, and that such has not been the case where two telephone companies have their service installed.

Some years ago the Bell Telephone Company in this city were the only people in the field, and they were charging at the rate of $120 per year for main line unlimited service. After the Cuyahoga Telephone Company had secured a franchise and installed a plant, the rate was reduced to $81 per year, and the service very much improved.

I am a firm believer in competition in telephone lines, as well as all other business, and believe that your city will be much benefited, that your telephone service will be better, and that your rates will be reduced if an independent company is allowed in the field. Very respectfully yours,
J. F. HARPER, Vice-president.

MAYOR OF RACINE.

City of Racine, Mayor's Office
Racine, Wis., June 6, 1905.

Home Telephone Company, 310 Sansome St., San Francisco, Cal.—Gentlemen: Your inquiry received with reference to the independent telephone line established in our city. This was established about three years ago, and has given excellent results in every way. Before this company started we had only the Bell Telephone Company, and the service was exceedingly poor—no accommodations from either the company or the central. As a matter of fact, it was even disagreeable to use the lines. Since the establishment of the independent company, however, the competition has resulted in entirely different service. Now every effort is made to give prompt and polite service. The rates are much lower, and it is a pleasure and satisfaction to use the telephone. The inconvenience of having two telephones is infinitesimal as against the advantages of competition, and by reason of the reduction in telephone rates, the number of telephone users has increased. I should judge four or five times over. Very truly yours,
PETER B. NELSON, Mayor.

SAN DIEGO'S EXPERIENCE.

Merchants' National Bank of San Diego.
San Diego, Cal., March 21, 1905.

Mr. Sharkey, Portland, Oregon.—Dear Sir: We have been using the automatic telephone for several months, and it is perfectly satisfactory in every way. We always use the Home when we can, because it is quick and private. It is a time and patience saver.

Yours truly,
F. R. BURNHAM, Vice-president.

PRATISE FROM LINCOLN.

Mayor of Lincoln, Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 12, 1905.

C. E. Summers, Spokane, Wash.—The service furnished by the Automatic Telephone Exchange recently installed here meets our highest expectations. The number of telephones in use in Lincoln is double what it was a year ago, and both 'phones can now be secured for about what one formerly cost. Competition has given Lincoln the best of service at reasonable rates in place of inferior service at exorbitant rates.

H. J. WINNET, Mayor.

BETTER SERVICE FOR PITTSBURG.

The Home Trust Company of Pittsburgh.
Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 21, 1905.

Mr. Vinton A. Sears, Boston, Mass.—Dear Sir: Our Pittsburgh & Allegheny Telephone Company's independent service has been entirely satisfactory, and the people here have taken to it, as the rates have been reduced, and we have better service.

Yours very truly,
R. J. DAVIDSON, Vice-president.

YACHT RACES AT SAN DIEGO.

ONLY FOUR VESSELS ENTER THE CONTEST FOR THE FAMOUS LIPTON TROPHY.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., August 29.—There was not a bright prospect for a good sailing wind this afternoon for the yacht race for the Lipton trophy for the season of 1905. The day was hot, the sky without a cloud, and in the forenoon only a light wind was blowing.

The first race of the series of contests was held last year when the cup was won by the Detroit of San Diego. The Detroit was purchased on Lake Michigan for the purpose of defending the trophy and won easily over the northern and local yachts. This year the fast sloop flies the colors of the South Coast Yacht Club of Los Angeles and appears as a challenger.

Before noon today everything was in readiness for the first race the start of which was set for 1:30 p. m. The course today was an equilateral triangle, two nautical miles to each leg, twice around, making a total of twelve nautical miles. The start will be at the Coronado Hotel.

There are but four entries in the contest, the challengers, Detroit, Venus and Michigan sail from the yacht club, Los Angeles, and the Butcher Boy of the San Diego Yacht Club.

CONGRESSMEN LISTEN TO THE WOES OF FILIPINOS

Islanders Give Their Reasons for Demanding Independence From United States.

MANILA, August 29.—The council hall of the Ayuntamiento Palace was crowded today with independence agitators gathered on the invitation of Governor Wright to air their grievances.

The meeting was called to order by Senator Scott of West Virginia, who presided as chairman. During the meeting several speakers urged the immediate independence of the islands, but there was nothing new in their arguments, which were confined to points which have been raised by these people ever since civil government was instituted. One speaker, until lately a member of the Hong Kong Junta, maintained that the Filipinos were better fitted for self government than the people of Greece, Bulgaria and Peru. They would be willing to accept independence under an American protectorate of a system of perpetual neutrality arranged by the American government which would guarantee non-interference by ambitious powers.

The same speaker said one reason advanced by the agitators for not granting independence was the lack of common language the natives speaking many dialects. He compared the Filipinos and their multitude of tribal tongues with the three languages spoken in Great Britain, English, Irish and Scotch, saying that that nation had no difficulty in the matter of self government. This statement brought forth an uproarious outburst of laughter from the Congressmen present. All the speakers were subjected to volleys of questions by Senators Newlands and Warren and Congressmen Hepburn, Grover and Cooper, all finally admitting that they had not given the subject sufficient study to determine just how the question of independence should be settled in the islands. Congressman Cooper of Wisconsin during the course of an interview said: "It is quite apparent to anyone who has looked into the matter even superficially that self government for the Filipinos at present is out of the question. A very few months if independence was granted them there would be a factional fight going on similar to the Aguinaldo-Luna feud which would give some of the natives an opportunity to intervene and divide up the islands." The meeting will be continued tomorrow, August 30.

MATRIMONY CURE FOR DRINKING

MARY HARRIS TELLS COURT THAT SHE WILL WED AND QUIT LIQUOR.

Mary Harris, formerly the wife of a well known horseman, who took an oath-bound pledge before Police Judge Samuels not to touch a drop of liquor for a year in the event she was not punished for being drunk was before his honor this morning charged with the same offense, only twenty-four hours after she had taken the pledge. She was tearful and repentant.

"I know, Judge, that I should be sent to jail for six months," she said. "But please do not send me to that awful place. I would go crazy. If you will let me go I will leave town. I have a chance to get married and if you will let me go I will do it."

Judge Samuels will study the question of the matrimonial cure for the liquor habit until tomorrow morning, when he will tell Mary her fate.

MACDONOUGH THEATER CROWDED TO THE DOORS

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" Proves the Greatest Drawing Card of the Year.

Last night was the opening night of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" at the Macdonough theater. The house was crowded to the doors, every seat being filled and standing room at a premium. It seems to have taken Oakland by storm. The play is in three acts, with a long list in the cast of characters, of which Madge Carr Cook takes the leading role as Mrs. Wiggs. She gives an artistic touch to the part, and she plays it to the limit. Words cannot express Miss Cook's great triumph in this role. Her sayings are quaint and humorous, and as has often been said, "there are many things said in jest which are true." The play will make one laugh. In fact, every character seems to have been molded out for his part. It is the best play ever seen here, where there were no misfits.

As there is to be a matinee on Wednesday afternoon, children will be admitted. It is a play they will enjoy and long remember. It is filled with clear, clean humor, and they will enjoy the jokes, for example:

"I hear your aunt gave you a good spanking this morning."

"Yes, but she had to do it behind my back."

Miss Carr was called before the curtain several times last night, and bowed in acknowledgment of the splendid reception she received. Nothing just like Mrs. Wiggs has ever been seen here before.

Among those noticed in the audience were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Riley, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Dargie, J. J. McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Prather, P. W. NATIVE SONS TO CELEBRATE DEATH

WILL OBSERVE HOLIDAY IN HOME TOWN WITH DAY OF REJOICING.

LIVERMORE, August 29.—Posters are out announcing the celebration that has been under advisement for some time past for September 9, to be given jointly by the Native Sons and Native Daughters. The committee in charge has spared no effort to make the day one long to be remembered in this end of the county. The festivities will be opened on the night of the 8th, when the Young Ladies' Institute will give a musical and dramatic performance in the Sweeney Opera House, consisting mostly of local talent and in the evening a grand ball will be given by the Native Sons and Daughters.

The Danish picnic held Sunday at Fernbrook drew a large delegation of town people. An interesting program of games and sports was provided and all seemed pleased with the day's outing.

The Fraternal Brotherhood, in addition to the regular business meeting Friday night, gave a banquet to which the friends and relatives of the members were invited. The evening was concluded with dancing.

The town fairpole arrived Sunday, after being hauled on wagons from Oakland. The pole was of such length, 126 feet, that it was found impossible to bring it here on flat cars.

The first rifle team of Company I will go to San Francisco to hold a competition with the "Tigers" of Battery B of that place.

Tom Scott of Bakersfield is spending a few days here on business.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

W. E. DARGIE, President

Business Office and Publishing House, 418-417 Eighth Street, Oakland.

The University Farm Again.

When real estate agents in different interior towns began to clamor that the University farm should be located at some interior point far distant from Berkeley, THE TRIBUNE pointed out that locating the farm at a great distance from Berkeley inevitably meant, in time if not immediately, the separation of the agricultural college from the University. The farm is for practical experimental work in connection with the course of instruction given at the agricultural college which is located at Berkeley and is an integral part of the University. The absurdity of locating the experimental farm from one hundred to two hundred miles distant from the college is apparent.

We contended that the proposition involved one of two things: Either the removal of the college to the farm or the establishment of another school at the farm, with laboratory equipment, where scholastic training could be acquired. The expense of maintaining two schools would inevitably cause the discontinuance of one.

It was first denied that locating the farm in the Sacramento or San Joaquin valleys would cause any disruption of the University, but it was subsequently admitted, and then came long dissertations on the alleged advantages of having the agricultural college entirely separated from the State University and under different management. When Professor Bailey of Cornell punctured this contention, he was coarsely assailed as having been imported out here by President Wheeler to assist in a scheme to hoodwink the public. Nobody attempted to dispute his premises or answer his conclusion, but he was dismissed with opprobrium as being a friend of Dr. Wheeler's. There is no intimacy between the two men at all, and it is inconceivable that so eminent an educator as Professor Bailey could be induced to lend himself to a scheme in California opposed to public policy and subversive of the true principle of imparting instruction in the science of agriculture.

It has been reserved for a few winemakers to cap the climax, however. A few members of the State Viticultural Association, which is dominated by the wine trust, got together and resolved that the farm was, not for the "University but for the farmers." It did not occur to them that it might be for both, or to inquire what the law says on the subject. The bill making the appropriation for the purchase and creating a commission to select the site, expressly states that it is a "University farm," to be attached to the University and to be under the control of the Regents of that institution, in whom the title is to be vested. The agricultural college is a part of the University, but the farm is not to be exclusively an agricultural college affair, but is to afford demonstrations for all the students of the University who may care to observe them.

It is charitable to assume that the winemakers who declared the farm should belong to the farmers and not to the University never read the law. But how are the farmers going to run the farm, admitting it belongs to them? Like the average California farm is run? Who is to manage it? To what purposes shall it be devoted? How is husbandry to be improved and made more lucrative if the farm be detached from any seat of learning? Evidently the resolvers of the Viticultural Association were talking for "farmers" of the class only found in the comic papers.

However, the commission is composed of sensible men who are not to be deluded by flubdub or cajoled by the blandishments of real estate speculators. They know that the University farm is to be a University farm, and they can be relied on to select the site that will best answer the purposes to which the farm is to be devoted. To wit, experimental agriculture in connection with scholastic training at the State University.

Since the delegation of Jewish bankers from New York called on M. Witte there have been two massacres of Jews in Russia. One took place in Poland and the other in Bessarabia. At least M. Witte ought to extend his condolences.

Is our hat on straight or is somebody else getting mixed? Here is the telegraph reporting one day that a mass meeting of negroes in Memphis, Tenn., adopted resolutions protesting against the repeal of the "Jim Crow" car law, and now it relates that a gathering of colored Baptists in Dallas, Texas, endorsed burning negroes for assaulting white women. Booker Washington might pass the buck to Thomas Dixon Jr. and get him to offer some solution of this unexpected phase of the race problem.

The San Francisco Situation.

The Woodland Democrat is still pestered by seeing things in THE TRIBUNE. Here is the latest evidence of morbid vision:

"The San Francisco correspondent of THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE finds it a difficult matter to maintain an independent position in discussing San Francisco politics. In one paragraph of his last letter he ridicules the idea that Ruef will be able to control the Republican convention. In another paragraph he tries to make it appear that the Republican League didn't win much of a victory after all."

Well, does our contemporary believe Ruef has a chance to control the Republican convention? Does it believe the Republican League won much of a victory in the primary?

There is not a well informed man in San Francisco who believes either proposition. If Ruef is trying to control the Republican convention he is doing a futile and a very foolish thing. He is not generally looked upon as being foolish, although some of his journalistic enemies constantly represent him as doing things which would be deemed silly in a boy. He cannot be a Machiavelli and a muttonhead both.

Every person of sense in San Francisco realizes that the real struggle with Schmitz and Ruef is yet to come; that while the Republican organization has been saved from Ruef it still is in the same position it was when Henry J. Crocker was nominated for Mayor two years ago; that the determining factor in the coming contest will be the effect of a Republican fusion with the McNab Democracy. Even sanguine Republican leaders do not believe, nor do they contend, that Republican chances are much, if any, more than even at this time.

This is all a question of fact, not of wishes and prejudices. Republican success is desirable, but success is not to be gained by closing eyes to the facts or indulging in foolish rhodomontade about victories which count for little. Abuse never yet won a political fight, but the lessons of the past seem to be lost on some men who ought to know better. It is only natural that such should be vexed with THE TRIBUNE for giving the cold facts to the public.

Ben Butler and Yellow Fever

Every time there is an outbreak of the disease on the Gulf Coast the statement that General Butler "stamped out yellow fever in New Orleans" starts on its rounds. It is now making its periodical circuit. General Butler did not stamp the fever out in New Orleans for the very good reason that there was no yellow fever to stamp out while he was there. He did, it is true, clean up the city and enforce a rigid quarantine as preventives to the introduction of the fever. No doubt his sanitary measures made the city more healthful generally, but the failure of the fever to appear while he was there is not even prima facie evidence that he kept it out. Before and since Butler's regime, New Orleans has been free from yellow fever for years at a time. Indeed it only appears there in cycles. Yellow fever is not endemic anywhere in the United States, and it has never been known to survive a winter in Louisiana. It must be imported from abroad, and its spread is now generally ascribed to a certain kind of mosquito. It was Butler's theory that yellow fever originated in Louisiana and was propagated by animal and vegetable matter decaying in conjunction. His theory has no standing with modern medical men experienced in treating yellow fever. He was in error as to the pathology as well as the genesis of the disease, and his claim that yellow fever failed to visit New Orleans because he quarantined and cleaned up the city is not very substantial in view of the fact that New Orleans has gone for eight and ten years at a time in a most filthy condition without being visited by the pestilence before and since Butler's time. What kept the fever out during those periods? Early in the present outbreak the health officer of New Orleans, a noted yellow fever expert, said the energy expended in cleaning gutters and sewers and disinfecting garbage heaps as a preventive to the spread of yellow fever is wasted. Butler gave to the world his version of his war with Yellow Jack and he colored in a way peculiar to himself, and it is this characteristic narration that is responsible for the wholly baseless story that he stamped yellow fever out in New Orleans.

An assayer for a bank in Alaska says $10,000,000 worth of gold will be shipped out of Nome this fall. There will also be shipped out a miscellaneous assortment of broken men who will bring no gold out with them. No matter how rich and lively a mining camp may be, it always has more than a complement of men down on their luck.

POLITICAL GRAND JURYING.

Judge Carroll Cook of the Superior Court of San Francisco roasted the recently discharged Grand Jury there for its criticism of him, and we think the Judge was right. Judge Cook's standing as an authority on criminal law is unquestionable and the Grand Jury's efforts to bring him into discredit were palpably forced by outside influence. That Grand Jury, by the way, was a shameful specimen of the way work in San Francisco is done by politicians. It went out of its way to do politics for its friends and in so doing missed fire—Nevada City Miner-Transcript.

WHERE THE SHOE PINCHES.

THE OAKLAND-TRIBUNE tells Los Angeles to revise its school census rather than its assessment roll. This is the unkindest cut of all. THE TRIBUNE should remember that it doesn't cost anything to stuff a school census report, while the Angelenos have discovered that increasing the assessment roll is a mighty expensive business.—Bakersfield Echo.

THE TIME WILL COME

When the Advice of This Oakland Resident Will Help You.

Very few people are entirely free from backache. It does not take much to derange the kidneys. A little cold, a strain, stopping positions or hard work, overtaxes those delicate organs, and many aches and pains promptly follow. An Oakland citizen tells you here how every kidney ailment can be relieved and cured. Read about it:

Walter J. Plummer, of 1228 Versailles avenue, Alameda, writes, in reply of Geo. R. Moss & Co., says: "If the contraction of a cold which settled across the small of my back was not the primary cause of the aching in that part of my anatomy, I knew positively that when I caught a cold aggravation of the back was assured. I have persistently and conscientiously tried medicines when these attacks were at their height but I met with very indifferent success. From reading an advertisement about Doan's Kidney Pills in a newspaper I was induced to go to a drug store for a box. Relief followed the treatment in a few days and finally I stopped using the pills there has not been a sign of a recurrence."

ROYAL FAMILY TRAITS.

Children of the Hapsburgs invariably Resemble Their Mothers.

In an interesting paper read to the Farfian Academy of Medicine, Dr. Galippe, well known for his zeal in bringing the light of science to bear on historical problems, points out that it is often among royal families that heredity, in its scientific sense, may be best studied. Respecting royal houses there exists a wealth of information extending over many generations, the records of which being supplemented by all the work of painters, engravers, medallists, etc., which is extremely valuable in examining, for instance, such a question as the transmission of facial characteristics.

Among royal houses transmission of this kind is most conspicuous in the Hapsburg family, to such a degree that the children of Austrian arch-duchesses invariably resemble their mothers, no matter what marriage the latter may have contracted. Well-known examples of the kind have been the king of Rome, Napoleon's son by Marie Louise of Austria, and the present king of Spain, the son of a Bourbon father and a Hapsburg mother.

As another instance of the inviolable propensity of Hapsburg heredity, Dr. Galippe mentions Marie Antoinette's children, who resembled her rather than the father; and he lays stress on the point that the emperor, who was the father of the little dauphin who perished during the revolution show that if had reached manhood he would have been a genuine Hapsburg in appearance. That was overlooked by the various impostors who afterwards claimed to be the missing dauphin, and also by those who believed them. In some cases, notably that of Naundorff, the claimant's looks suggested the Bourbon type—a circumstance which was thought to be in his favor, whereas, according to M. Galippe, it was really a further proof to be added to all the others, that he was practicing imposture.—From the Westminster Gazette.

A Grim Tragedy
is daily enacted in thousands of homes, as death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. When Coughs and Colds are properly treated the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong. It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. FASHION'S PHASES.
(From Punch.)

When first I whispered words of love,
When first you turned aside to hear,
The winged griffin flew above,
The mammoth gaily gambol'd near.
I wore the latest thing in skins,
Your dock-leaf dress had just been mended
And fastened up with fishes' fins—
The whole effect was really splendid.

Again—we wandered by the Nile,
In Egypt's fan, forgotten land,
And watched the festive crocodile
Devour papyrus from your hand.
Far off across the plain we saw
The trader urge his flying camel;
Bright shone the scarab belt you wore,
Clasped with a sphinx of rare enamel.

Again—on Trojan plains I knelt;
Alas! in vain I strove to speak
And tell you all the love I felt
In more or less Homeric Greek;
Perhaps my helmet strap was tight
And checked the thoughts I fain would utter,
Or else your robe of dreamy white
Bewildered me and made me stutter.

Once more we change the mise-en-scene,
The white road curves across the hill;
Excitement makes you rather plain,
But on the whole I love you still,
As wreathed with vells and goggles blue,
And clad in mackintosh and leather,
Snug in our motor built for two
We skim the Brighton road together.

WANTED A DRINK.
"Why, John," exclaimed Mrs. New-kid as she came into the room, "what in the world makes the baby cry so?"
"I don't know, my dear," answered Newkid, "he handed the infant off to his mother, but I imagine he is thinking of what the Governor of North Carolina once said to the Governor of South Carolina."—Chicago News.

WEALTHY WOMAN PAID HIS BILLS; WIFE SUES HER FOR HEAVY DAMAGES

NEWARK, August 29.—With three suits for divorce, another for $50,000 for alienation of affections, and still another for $2,000,000, which is claimed for a child, furnishing a remarkable tangle in the affairs of the Lyon, Nagle and Betts families, a further sensation was offered when Mrs. Alberta Lyon, in her answer to Frank W. Lyon's suit, asserted her husband had brought a youth into her home with the deliberate purpose of having that youth make love to her. Her implication is that Lyon hoped thereby to get her in such a compromising position he would have legal ground for casting her off.

In the forefront of the case looms Mrs. Agnes E. Nagle Betts, twice divorced, first by T. M. Nagle, millionaire president of the First National bank of Erie, Pa., and again by Betts also a wealthy Erie resident. It is against Mrs. Nagle-Betts that Mrs. Lyon has brought the $50,000 suit. She asserts the former wife of two millionaires has stolen from her the love of Lyon. Trips that Lyon and Mrs. Betts are alleged to have taken together, and the actions of the couple on those little journeys, figure in a highly interesting portion of the papers filed by Chauncey H. Reasley, counsel for Mrs. Lyon.

But in all the varied accusations and counter-accusations one of the most striking figures is Clifford Henry, 19 years old. He is the youth Mrs. Lyon says, her husband introduced into the household with the set purpose of causing a break in their marital relations.

She says Henry came to visit them in 104 Hollywood Avenue, East Orange, in February, 1901. Her husband induced her to take Henry as a boarder at $5 a week. She strongly objected, she says, on account of her physical condition, but her husband said to her: "Oh, he's only a kid. Don't mind him."

Before Henry had been in the house a week her husband made him kiss her, she alleges. Often in the first three weeks of Henry's stay in the house, she avers, her husband would catch her, hold her and say: "Cliff, kiss me now!" and Henry would do so, much to her disgust.

After the youth had been in the house three weeks her husband went to Atlantic City. He told her Henry would take her anywhere she wanted to go. "Go to the theater with him," she says her husband advised. She answered that she would not do such a thing. "Oh, you're foolish; go ahead and have a good time," she avers her husband retorted.

"He seemed," her answer continues, "to be doing his utmost to lead this boy to disrespect me and to make him act familiarly."

Lyon stayed in Atlantic City three weeks. When he came back he had a talk with the young boarder. Then, says the wife, he came to her room, where she was extremely ill, made false accusations against her and told her he "had ordered Cliff out of the house." "My condition at that time ought to have been my protection against such an accusation," says the wife.

Her husband left her in March, 1901, and wrote from Atlantic City that he never would return. He had become acquainted with Mrs. Betts in Old Point Comfort in the previous Christmas holidays. Mrs. Lyon asserts her husband and Mrs. Betts have been together at various places, living in fine style and driving "with spirited horses in victorias with liveried coachmen."

When she brought the $50,000 suit against Mrs. Betts last June, she alleges, her husband was living in the Lenox Hotel, Philadelphia, and Mrs. Betts was paying his board. To bear out the allegation that Lyon gets money from Mrs. Betts, Mrs. Lyon asserts he is in the lightning rod business, with an income of $150 a month, yet he has not lived for several years in a way moderate enough for such an income. She says he and Mrs. Betts lived in Yonkers, Bayville and 1 West Eighty-seventh street, Manhattan, as brother and sister.

Mr. Lyon narrates that a Mrs. Ketter, who met the pair in a New York department store, heard Mrs. Betts call Lyon "Frankie" and speak of him as "the dearest, sweetest little cherub in the world."

"In May, 1904," says Mrs. Lyon, "I had my husband arrested when he was passing through Newark, and he got off by promising the overseer of the poor to pay me $10 a week for the support of our daughter Grace. I was public school teacher in this city when I was married to Lyon in 1893, and I was compelled to begin teaching for a living again when my father-in-law had me practically driven from my home in East Orange."

"When my husband was spending $225 a month in hotels in Atlantic City I was starving, with only six cents in my pocket and no credit at the butcher's or grocer's."

Mrs. Lyon's closing statement runs: "The child of Mrs. Betts, Marguerite, in the time my husband lived with her always called him 'papa.'"

Mrs. Lyon goes so far as to charge that her husband is in a conspiracy with his father, Charles R. Lyon, to ruin her character. The $200,000 suit has nothing to do with the divorce action. Simply, memory of it has been revived by the newer case. It is a suit by Mrs. Betts to recover that amount from her first husband, Nagle, on behalf of their child, and is still pending in the Pennsylvania courts.

THINGS THAT THE WOMEN ARE DOING THE WORLD OVER

Lady Marcus Beresford, who founded the English Cat Club, has about 150 felines.

No married man in Vienna is allowed to go up in a balloon without the formal consent of his wife and children.

When Queen Wilhelmina made her last annual visit to Amsterdam and attended Sunday service, the pastor deemed it necessary to begin by admonishing the large congregation not to rise when the queen entered, nor to level opera glasses at her.

"Carmen Sylva," queen of Roumania, one of the most romantic figures of the day, is a student and worker as well as a poet. In every way she encourages the native industries of her adopted country and delights to appear in peasant costume, which she has revived.

Mrs. J. H. Rhodes, the first woman in Missouri to secure a hunter's license, is an expert rifle and wing shot, excelling her husband, Missouri's game warden, in the accuracy of her aim. Mrs. Rhodes is also a noted singer and a leader in local musical and society circles.

Miss Lillian Gonzalez Robinson, the youngest woman linguist in the United States, who has just been appointed head of the department of romance of the University of Oklahoma, although only twenty-three years old, has already mastered twelve languages, speaking most of them fluently. Miss Robinson was graduated from the University of Chicago in 1903.

During her recent Mediterranean cruise Queen Alexandra kept a journal, which is now being printed for very private circulation among her majesty's intimate friends. Only a very limited number of copies will be printed, and the interest of the journal will be added to it is understood, by contributions by the king, Prince Victoria, Prince Charles of Denmark and other distinguished personages who either participated in or were met with in the course of the journey.

"I do not know which is the worse, a visitor with a pronounced opinion, or one who has no views at all," said a charming matron. "The latter is very irritating. When you politely say to your guest: 'Will you walk or drive?' to have his answer: 'Walkchever you like,' or 'It's quite the same to me.' I have so often wished that some of my guests had minds of their own. The only thing a hostess can do when visited by invertebrate guests who will not express their opinions is just to cart them about with her like parcels where she wants to go herself."

Seven women dentists and physicians practicing in New Orleans will open a free medical and dental clinic for women and children.

Countess Schimmling of Denmark, who visited Chicago some time ago, has visited fifty-seven cities and fifteen countries, preaching to sailors and the poor. Her methods are not approved by her relatives.

At a fashionable wedding at Lynchburg, Va., a little boy and girl preceded the bride and bridegroom up the aisle of the church, each carrying a silk pillow stuffed with the love letters of the bridal pair. The latter knelt on the pillows during the ceremony.

Sig. Mascagni, the Italian composer, and his wife wear watch fobs alike. They are common Italian coins, each punctured with six holes, in which are set the teeth of the first two Mascagni children, the teeth of the mother's charm being the first of her little daughter's, while the proud father has the milk teeth of his first-born son.

Miss F. R. Wilkinson, daughter of the president of the British Medical Association, is herself principal of the Horticultural College at Swenley, England. She is also landscape gardener of the Metropolitan Public Gardens association, and to the Kyrie Society Gardens and Playgrounds for the Metropolis, and of various private gardens.

A famous bible, known as the "Blood Bible," has been sold by public auction at Breslau for $40 to the descendants of Frederick von Trenk, its original owner. Frederick von Trenk, imprisoned and bound in chains for making love to the king's sister, Princess Amalia, while away the weary hours by writing sonnets in honor of the lady of his love. They were inscribed on 200 blank pages in this bible, a gift of the princess, and every word was written with his own blood.

Women who ordinarily have no trouble with their feet sometimes suffer tortures at this season of the year. Fifteen minutes in the street will make the soles swell and burn until walking becomes agony and there is nothing to do but to go home at once and remove one's shoes. While certain remedies, such as soaking the feet in water made strong with alum, salt water or rubbing out lemon over them, will ease the pain, it is wiser to look for and change the cause, which will be due to shoes or stockings, sometimes both. No person who has trouble with their feet should wear lisle thread. A characteristic of this thread is its tight twist. This is so hard that there is no "give" to it when the flesh presses and constant pressure may cause swelling from irritation. However thick the quality of cotton worn may be it has "give" and is soft, causing little or no irritation.

HOW TO FRESHEN UP THE LITTLE THINGS IN DRESS

As the summer wears on women resort more and more to the little accessories of dress to make trifling changes in dresses or to tide a gown over the season—which makes the fact all the more significant that accessories have never before occupied so important a position as compared with the larger items of dress.

Under that sweeping head—accessories—are grouped a veritable host of things, from as large a thing as a silk slip down to the tiniest of this year's turnover collars—which, by the way, isn't so very tiny, after all.

Girdles grow more and more important—and insistent. Almost every girl who owns shows signs of hard wear; for, unlike the dresses they're worn with, they can't be unceremoniously dumped into a tub and washed. The best you can do for them is to have them cleaned; but it's a whole lot better to put that money toward a fresh new girdle.

Fresh ribbon at this time of the year can be had for a song, and short lengths of delicate evening silks for even less, so that for $5 or 50 cents you can get up a girdle which earlier in the season would have cost a dollar or two.

The deeper girdles and the narrower are preferred—women are getting tired of that stupid little upward point directly in the back, which, do what you would, cut off the length of your waist a bit and accentuated every bad line you may have had.

Deep girdles of ribbons, shirred onto bones and made to fit as carefully as a boned waist should, are wonderfully popular, and are especially pretty in pale blue of the softest satin. Flowery girdles are rapidly dying out, but the shaded girdles are still good.

Belts and buckles and narrow girdles (really nothing more than crushed belts)—every day sees some new whim expressed. The embroidery of every nation has been pressed into service, with 'for the newest of all. "Togo belts"—those stunning Japanese belts, embroidered with silks of every imaginable color on a white background and clasped by a metal belt—Japanese, too—expressing some good luck sentiment.

As to gloves—a wealth of colors have been brought out in the sheer silk that is so cool. Pale violet and pale green, the softest, clearest of yellows, rich reds, and the whole scale of blues, from pale blue (to match the girdles) through Alice blue down into that strong, definite blue that is the counterpart of the blue kid gloves that were such a novelty in the spring.

HOW TO ENJOY VACATION WHILE STAYING AT HOME

For those who cannot take a resort vacation and can see no time for dropping the daily round of duties an excellent and really restful summer rest can be obtained by making the most of the bits of leisure which come to almost everyone during the warm season. Nearly every line of work, domestic or professional, is comparatively light in the summer, and with the vacations in schools, churches, musical, social and literary clubs, etc., there are plenty of vacant hours for the busiest.

Now, instead of filling these vacated hours and minutes with new duties, the stay at home should save a good part of them for pure recreation. If the resort pleasures appeal to one, there are twenty of them in reach of the car lines, and if quieter occupation is more to one's taste there is always the "book of verses underneath the bough" or some similar diversion to be enjoyed.

One such home vacationist accounts for her rested look at the close of a working summer thus:

"I find that my evenings are mostly free during July and August, so I go to bed an hour or two earlier than in winter, and thus I build up tissues in one of the best possible ways. Then, for diversion, I put an hour a day into my reading, music or painting—just such easy, pleasant things as the woman of leisure does at a resort. I go to a park with my book sometimes, and again I find my own porch or back yard more restful, but I make it a point to keep out of doors when possible. I couldn't afford a summer trip or a fortnight at the lake shore, but I can afford some extra wash dresses and dressing saques and plenty of car rides, ice cream and other little refreshing things. I make a study of 'taking things easy' and I allow myself all the little pleasures I can think of, doing as many things as possible different from my winter routine, and in that way get the change of occupation which philosophers tell us is the best kind of rest. I read a good deal of fiction, store up and tell lots of conundrums and anecdotes, and, in fact, give an excellent imitation of a carefree and frivolous resorter, all summer long, filling these things in, of course, around my necessary duties.

"So, on the whole, I enjoy my prolonged vacation immensely—and how I do enjoy my own bed and bathroom and how gloriously cheap it is!"

JILTED GIRL WINS HUSBAND INSIDE OF MONTH

NEW YORK, August 29.—"Well, Judge, I got a hubby all right, as I said I would, didn't I?" Thus spoke the happy and triumphant bride whom Justice of the Peace O'Keefe had just married in his office, 61 First street, Hoboken, to Julius Steinhilber, a clerk in a Manhattan drug store. A few minutes before she had been Miss Cora Wilson of 28 Monroe street, Hoboken. Early this month Justice O'Keefe married Miss Helma Oelschlagel of Hoboken to Gus, a plasterer, employed in the Union Square Hotel, Manhattan. Next day she then Miss Wilson, her pretty face flushed, bounded into O'Keefe's office and asked if it was true that Fischer was wed.

The Justice assured her that it was even so. "Well, wouldn't that rattle a young girl's affections?" cried Miss Wilson. "Fischer asked me to marry him, and now he's gone and married another. But, depend on it, I'll have a husband inside of a month." So she had, and to let the squire know she is a woman of her word she went to him to tie the knot. "I was in love with Cora long before she met Fischer," declared Steinhilber, "and I do not believe she ever really cared for him."

MUSCULAR BRITISH MAIDS

The maids of Blackburn are making vital physical facts, to foster a love a supreme effort in regard to the development of the race.

They have organized a club under the name of The Blackburn and District Ladies' Natural Health Society, and they have a membership of about 140.

"The society," said the secretary, "aims at the development of a pure physique and nobler womanhood and manhood." A field has been created by the club. The specific objects of the club are for the purpose of engaging in outdoor sports, to discourage the wearing of corset-dress, and an instructor to take physical weakness of women, to promote the members in hand in the winter months the consideration of the health months. It is proposed to establish a question, to cultivate a proper pride in the care of the body, to dis-taining to physical culture, health and courage prudence and ignorance regard-hygiene.

SHAKESPEARE HEAR GROANS FROM THE GRAVE

CHICAGO, August 29.—The Rev. William Quayle addressed over 500 teachers at the session yesterday of the Cook County Teachers' Institute. In his address, the Rev. Mr. Quayle said that Shakespeare was the greatest portrayer of woman's character that ever lived.

"The women of Shakespeare," the speaker said, "are as true in this age as the one in which he wrote about them, and are yet the truest women that ever existed, either in real life or fiction. Shakespeare's women were the greatest of intellectual women, yet they were distinctly feminine."

—Miss Frances Wolseley, the daughter of Lord Wolseley, passes most of her time at Farmhouse, Glynde, England. She is one of the keenest women gardeners and thoroughly understands the scientific side of the subject. She has founded a school for gardening at Glynde and personally superintends the teaching. Miss Wolseley is heiress by special remainder to her father's viscountcy.

JAPANESE PRESS MILITANT

WANT INDEMNITY AND SAKHALIN OR FORCE THE FIGHTING.

TOKIO, August 26, 8 a. m.—The press opinion is almost unanimous in condemning the proposal to divide Sakhalin in consideration of a monetary consideration.

The Hoochi says: "It would be an abominable disgrace identical with selling the national territory. The country's honor and interest forbid the continuation of the conference. Should Russia not yield Japan's patience is not without limit."

The Asahi advises the breaking off of the conference owing to Russia's "unreasonable obstinacy." "The fact remains indelible," it says that "Japan has been victorious in war."

Japan is not impoverished to the extent of thirsting for a paltry sum of money to be paid under the name of prisoners' expenses."

The Nichi Nichi which is under the guidance of a diplomat of recognized ability says:

"The idea of dividing Sakhalin is not to be entertained. An inefficient and unsatisfactory peace simply amounts to the inviting of a future menace to our interests. An indemnity must also be insisted upon. A strong adherence to our demands might invite a rupture but no other course is open. Under the circumstances a rupture is preferable to a patchwork peace. The nation is determined to realize the aim and purpose of the war and establish a lasting peace."

"We trust that the cabinet and Elder Statesmen who met in the presence of the Emperor yesterday are united and prepared to carry out this national determination even if it involves the lamentable continuation of the war."

The Kokumin does not believe that a rupture of the negotiations will take place and trusts that Russia will yield to Japan's fresh proposal. "Otherwise," it says, "Russia must bear the whole responsibility for the continuation of the terrible war."

SOCIETY LEADER UNDER KNIFE

MRS. ARTHUR PAGET MUST SUBMIT TO ANOTHER OPERATION.

NEW YORK, August 26.—Operations which have succeeded one another through months of pain suffered by Mrs. Arthur Paget, the well-known society leader, have proved in vain, and another most difficult one will be attempted next week, cables the Herald's London correspondent. Mrs. Paget sustained a fractured thigh and the bones failed to knit sufficiently to support the weight of her body.

The operation now to be performed is a difficult and serious one, and will, it is expected last three hours. The side of the thigh will be cut open and an incision made until the fractured bones are encountered. These will then be firmly screwed together with ivory and in a few months' time, it is hoped, the fractures will be united strong enough to bear the weight of the body.

GET THEIR YACHT HOME

EXCURSIONISTS START OFF SAILING AND COME HOME BY TRAIN.

POINT RICHMOND, August 26.—Floyd and Bert Crampton, Roy Nauigle and Glenn Conn took a vacation a few weeks ago and went up into Suisun bay in a small yacht. "Things went swimmingly" until they started home. Time was no object before. The boys arrived home finally by train. They have made two trips since to get the boat but the tide was contrary. Sunday they were fortunate enough to find a barge coming this way from which they were granted a tow, and the boat was safely landed in the government's navigable stream at the foot of Richmond avenue.

ESCAPES CAPTURE BY JAPANESE

STEAMSHIP CENTENNIAL COMES INTO PORT AFTER DELIVERING CONTRABAND CARGO.

SEATTLE, Wash., August 26.—The steamship Centennial reached port last night after a voyage to the mouth of the Argur river, for which she sailed from San Francisco June 12. The officers say the fog and their captain's nerve saved them from capture by Japanese.

Under command of Captain Strand the Centennial sailed from San Francisco with a cargo, the principal part of which was salt, although she carried some flour. It is understood by the ship's officers that she was under charter to a man named Louri, who claimed that he was taking the cargo to a cannery which he owned at Nikolsk, which is some distance from the mouth of the Amur.

The Centennial dropped anchor fifty miles off Nikolsk. Here she was obliged to wait for nineteen days before she could discharge her cargo and get away.

Although the cargo of the Centennial was said to have been shipped by a private party, the fact that the work of discharging was done by Russian soldiers caused the officers and crew to have suspicions as to whether or not it was for private use.

BEES ROB CANDY WOMAN FALLS TO STORE HER DEATH

DEALER IN NEW YORK COMPLAINS TO THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

NEW YORK, August 26.—A candy manufacturer owning an extensive plant in Barclay street appealed to the Board of Health yesterday for protection against thousands of honey bees, which he declares are robbing him of large quantities of sweets. If the health authorities do not act the candy-maker says he will appeal to the police.

Since early last spring, the complainant asserts, the honey collectors have attacked his employees and customers and have made his establishment the base of operations for filling with honey twenty-eight hives on the roof of a near-by building occupied by a firm which deals in beekeepers' supplies.

"I am in the unique position of being the only man in New York who is being daily robbed of enough sugar to keep 5,000,000 bees busy making a metropolitan brand of honey," the candy-maker said last night. "See experts tell me that a hive as large as those on the Vesey street building contains about 250,000 bees. They are making a good thing out of me. It has come to be the exception when each day two or three of the girls or men employes in my factory are not stung. The wounds in many cases have been so painful that the victims have had to go home. The bees also invade my retail department on the ground floor, attacking my customers and thus injuring my patronage."

RE-CHRISTEN CRUISER.

TOKIO, August 26.—The ex-Russian cruiser Bayan arrived at the Matsuyama naval station yesterday. The Bayan is now known as the Aso in the Japanese navy.

A grocer who sands his sugar has more grit than principle.

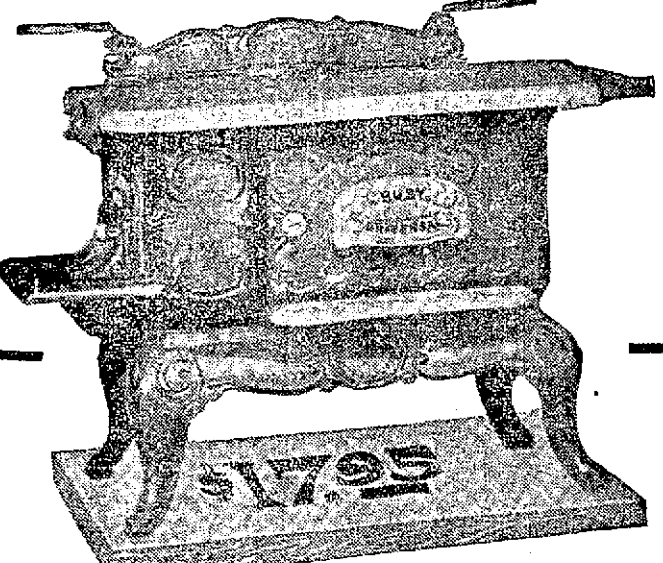

CHICAGO, August 26.—In sight of hundreds of passengers crowded about the rail of the steamer Eastland, a woman walked from the partly swung bridge into the river at Wells street last night as the bridge moved back into the place after the passing of the excursion boat. The efforts of a dozen willing life savers who leaped from the boat and dived to the river were futile as the victim failed to rise to the surface after the fall.

AGED NEW YORK MERCHANT IS DEAD

NEW YORK, August 26.—Theodore Wallace Todd, for more than fifty years head of what is said to be the oldest business establishment in New York City, died yesterday. He was 89 years old, and the firm of which he was the head until he retired five years ago was established prior to 1790.

Mr. Todd belonged to one of the oldest New York families. His people have been prominent in the social, business and religious life of the city for two centuries. Among his numerous surviving relatives is President Roosevelt.

Heretofore the restrictions in number of units placed upon students were made exclusive of the gymnasium work and hygiene lectures. With the transference of the Military lecture to the freshman and sophomore years it was thought that the lecture should be included in the number of units that could be taken. This idea is contradicted by the announcement of the Board of Trustees in the case of regular students for the freshman class who are limited to 12 units, this limitation is made exclusive of gymnasium work and hygiene and military lectures, so that these freshmen may take 22 units in all.

This announcement greatly increases the study-lists of many students who have been overburdened by the inclusion of the military lecture which should be included.

an actress on board a chartered steamer yacht, and was arrested in Brazil, he confessed that he defrauded his employers, according to a Herald dispatch from Bahia. He is said to have admitted committing the frauds by falsifying signatures.
